○ Test 15

Read the following short text and answer the questions given below.

(08 marks)

Kamal lives in a small, quiet village near the ancient city of Kandy, nestled among green hills. His days start very early. Every morning, even before the sun is fully up, he helps his father in their family's paddy field. They work hard together, planting, caring for, and harvesting rice. Rice is not just a crop for them; it's the main food for most people in Sri Lanka, and their efforts ensure there is enough to eat for their family and to share with others in the village.

In the afternoon, after their morning work in the fields, Kamal goes to the village school. It's a simple, friendly place where he learns many new things from his teachers. He enjoys studying and spending time with his classmates. Education is important to his family, and Kamal always tries his best in all his lessons, especially in Sinhala and Maths.

After school, when his homework is done, Kamal's favourite activity is to play cricket with his friends. They gather on a dusty patch of ground behind the school, using tree branches as bats and a old tennis ball. Laughter and cheers fill the air as they practice their bowling and batting skills. Sometimes, they even organize small matches against other groups of friends, making their evenings lively and fun.

On weekends, life slows down a bit. His family often visits the local temple, a peaceful place with ancient trees and a calming atmosphere, where they offer flowers and light oil lamps. Other times, they might go to the nearby Kandy Lake. They love to watch the calm water and the beautiful surroundings. Kamal loves his village life very much. He enjoys the fresh, clean air, the close-knit community, and the simple, yet fulfilling, days spent with his family and friends.
